

Railway Time Table

CHICAGO & ALTON RY.
TIME TABLE

In Effect June 24, 1911

EAST BOUND TRAINS

14 Daily Mo. State Express, Bloomington	10:35 a.m.
22 Mid-Day Special St. Louis	12:15 p.m.
16 Daily The Hammer (west) Chicago	5:30 p.m.
24 Daily Early Bird St. L. & Chicago	11:45 p.m.
18 Daily, Slater Accommodation	7:45 p.m.

WEST BOUND TRAINS

23 Daily The Early Bird, Kansas City	4:05 a.m.
15 Daily Hammer for Kansas City	5:35 a.m.
19 The Mo. State Express for Kansas City	4:15 p.m.
21 Mid-Day Special for Kansas City	2:50 p.m.
17 Daily, Slater Accommodation	6:55 a.m.
11 Daily Passenger	8:55 a.m.

O. E. HAWTHORNE, Agent.

MISSOURI PACIFIC RY.

EAST BOUND TRAINS

32 Passenger Leaves Marshall	9:05 a.m.
32 Passenger	10:05 a.m.
38 Local Freight	10:05 a.m.

WEST BOUND TRAINS

31 Passenger arrives at Marshall	8:55 a.m.
31 Passenger	3:55 p.m.
35 Local Freight	1:30 p.m.

The 8:55 a. m. Passenger train arrives in Marshall from the east from Sedalia and leaves ten minutes later for the east.

S. R. SMITH, Agent.

Local Items

Don't fail to attend the box supper at Prairie Home school to-night—Friday.

Hugo Stolberg was here from near Sweet Springs Tuesday on business.

Miss Mattie Sparks, teacher at Grand Pass, spent Sunday here with relatives.

We had the date of the Prairie Home box supper wrong. The affair is tonight.

Mrs. J. J. Witt is in Higginsville the guest of her sister Mrs. Claud Elliott.

Mrs. L. W. Scott is entertaining Mrs. L. A. Blackburn, of Blackburn and Mrs. Geo. McGrew of St. Louis.

J. W. Taylor, Fred Martin and Thos. Bagnell are on a hunting trip in Oklahoma.

Mr. and Mrs. June K. King were guests of Rev. and Mrs. George Beattie in Kansas City Sunday.

Miss Frances Napton is attending the charities meeting at Hannibal.

Look up the big ad about our Thanksgiving Offer. You never had a better one.

We are making a special Thanks giving offer this week. You can't afford to miss it. See adv.

Mrs. S. A. Grimes is visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Godman west of town for several weeks.

Mrs. Luttie V. Jackson and daughter, Mrs. H. H. Parsons, have returned to their home in Missouri, Montana.

Mrs. Ed West is home from a buying trip and reports having bought a nice line of Christmas goods for the store.

Geo. Larkin and daughter, Miss Marie, were here from Blackwater last week as guests of Dave Adams east of town.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Mette and daughter, Selma, were here from Little Rock Monday and made us an appreciated call.

Chas. Niemeier reports the sale of the Phil Leininger estate Saturday as a success. The property sold at very satisfactory prices.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Barnum left Thursday for a trip to Iowa and other points to visit former friends a few weeks.

The Marshall shoe factory is having trouble finding sufficient help. They are especially in need of young ladies. Call or see them if you want work.

O. W. Johnston and son Joe, went to St. Louis Monday night where Mr. Johnston attended the National Retail Dealers convention several days, and also to buy goods.

J. H. Kenner, principal of Lincoln school, is back from a meeting of the colored state teachers association, in which he took a prominent part.

Rev. R. T. Milne, representing the Children's Home Society of Missouri, was in Marshall this week in the interest of his work. He spoke at most of the churches last Sunday.

Higginsville, (Farmers Block) also Wallington and Lexington sent at the Ice Plant. Give your order to the Ice Plant.

You Can Buy at the NEW YORK RACKET

17 lbs Sugar	$1.00
Child's Bear Skin Coat	1.89
6 bunches Celery	.25
Full Length Caracul Coat	8.95
3 pkgs Seeded Raisins	.25
Hope Muslin, per yard	.08
An imported Velour Hat, Black or Brown	2.75
Regular $5.00 values
Colgates Talcum	.15
3 packages Macaroni	.25
Men's Heavy Fleeced Underwear	.35
A 25 oz. can Punch Baking Powder	.19
A bushel choice Big Red Eating Apples	1.50
Men's Heavy Sweater	.90
3 pkgs None Such Mince Meat	.25
32 in Percale per yard	.07
4 packages Oriole Corn Flakes	.25
100 doz. Black Cat Second in Wool and Fleeced Hose, per pair	.15

Big Special Reduction on all Millinery Goods.

Commencing FRIDAY, NOV. 22, we will place on sale all trimmed or tailored hats and all flowers and fancy feathers at exactly 1-2 price. Come early and make your selection while the better ones last.

The New York Racket
BIG CASH STORE

Deputy Sheriff Keith was kept busy Sunday. He was sent out by Sheriff Haynie to make seven arrests. The men were all colored. One was arrested at Waverly and six at Blackburn.

Mrs. Ema Chaffee went to Columbia Sunday and returned Thursday. She expects her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Miller of St. Louis, here today for a visit and to attend the Keehart anniversary.

Walter H. Scott who has been at work in Moberly for the past several months left Wednesday night for Dillon, South Carolina, where he will help his father, C. K. Scott, with the work at that place.

Prairie Home school, three miles northwest of town will give a box supper tonight. A short program and three-act play will be given followed by the box lunch. A good time is promised. All welcome.

Fred Stecker was up from West Glasgow Friday and said he sold out last week to Louis Borges, a neighbor and is looking for a new location. He received $102.50 per acre for his farm. He may locate near Marshall.

Special sales at Miss Mabel Smith's every Saturday. 44-7b

A. G. Ballard was here from near Hardeman Monday and reported that a fine boy arrived at the home of his neighbor, B. T. Jackson, last week. Also that Mrs. Will Eastham, who has been very ill, is some better.

The Farmers Mutual Fire Insurance Co. met in Nelson Saturday, Nov. 16th, and elected officers as follows: John Kessler, president; John Heuman, treasurer; George Busse, L. C. Heuman and P. W. Windmeyer, directors.

Dr. and Mrs. Geo. T. Heckler and Miss Genevieve Kibler went to Kansas City last week in the Doctor's auto. While there they attended the Manufacturers' show which they declare to have been very fine. They also visited other places of interest.

J. E. Godman came up from Moberly Sunday on a visit to his brother west of town and left Monday for Hannibal. New Mexico where he will be for two weeks.

Dee Wright, son of S. B. Wright of east of town, returned home Saturday from a seven years' stay in the Philippines, where he was stationed as a U. S. soldier. He declares the Philippines are the garden spot of the world. The long stay there gave him a good opportunity to study conditions in that faraway country.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Busse and daughter, Miss Carrie, were here from near Arrow Rock Friday shopping. Mr. Busse made our office a pleasant call and informed us that the farmers of his section have organized a mutual fire insurance company.

Mrs. W. H. Black was surprised Sunday on her birthday anniversary by her husband and daughters. They had prepared a fine dinner in her absence and invited some of her friends. The guests were P. H. Rea, J. P. Huston and S. W. Armentrout and their wives.

W. F. Boyd of north of town, was slightly bruised up last Thursday when he was shoved off a float at the rally. That's what he gets for getting on the Democratic band wagon. If he'll get on the "Progressive" he'll find plenty of room and no one will attempt to shove him off.

Big cut in prices every Saturday at Miss Mabel Smith's, Marshall, Mo. 44-7b

W. N. Wilson, superintendent of the Saline County Home, is attending the third annual meeting of the Association of Almshouse Officials at Hannibal, which convenes today. Mr. Wilson is president of the association. The 13th annual state conference of Charities and Corrections will be held at Hannibal also beginning tomorrow and continuing to the 26th.

An entertainment and pie social will be given at Brownlee school house on Wednesday night, Nov. 27th. Should weather prove unfavorable same will be given Friday night following. Program begins at 7 o'clock sharp. Everyone invited. Louis F. Hasemeier, teach.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob VanDyke and Mr. and Mrs. Ed H. Mitchell attended the 84th birthday anniversary celebration of T. C. Rainey Saturday, which was observed at the home of his daughter, Mrs. C. M. Prouty, near Kansas City.

Mrs. J. W. DeMoss was here from Grand Pass Saturday. She said it was the first time she has been out since the election. Republicans will soon be the "salt of the earth" and gladly welcomed.

P. O. Jenkins of Slater, returned home Thursday after a visit at C. W. Bogart's near Blue Lick. While here he purchased 100 acres of land from P. F. Jacoby of Blue Lick, which he bought as an investment.

Invitations are out for the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary celebration tomorrow Mr. and Mrs. Steve Keehart of northeast of town. The affair will be quite an important one.

S. J. Gibson, a prominent Hardeman farmer, has purchased of Jos. Schiesler the residence recently occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Lon Schiesler and will move here as soon as he can get possession.

Chas. Dierking, of Emma, sent us his renewal this week as well as his membership in the Tariff League. The names are coming in rather slowly so far, but a few good men like Mr. Dierking and the others who have joined will put the league in shape for business.

Immanuel Whittrup, our popular florist, and wife were happily reminded Tuesday evening by a party of friends that it was their twelfth wedding anniversary. After a few games of five hundred and some music light refreshments were served on the card tables, making the evening a very delightful one for the host and hostess as well as their friends.

Dr. E. B. Brinson, vice president and French professor in Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, has recently received a commission from the government to go to Cuba to investigate the yellow fever, and will leave December 1st for his post. Dr. Brinson who returned in April from a recent trip to South America on a similar mission.

Kirschbaum Clothes $15, $20 and $25

Hand-Tailored

INTELLIGENCE and stability in the making; and style and refinement of finish; precisely the characteristics you want in your new overcoat.

On a foundation of thoroughly-shrunk, all-wool fabric, hand-tailoring means Clothes Satisfaction that to a nicety meets the ideas of the modern Beau Brummel.

Sounds expensive? But it isn't—if you come here.

For we've gone straight to headquarters—to the model clothes factory of America, the leading and largest makers of hand-tailored clothes—and we can sell clothes of this description at no higher prices than you are asked to pay for ordinary sorts.

Kirschbaum Hand-tailored Overcoats—$15, $20, $25.

Positively none elsewhere like our Kirschbaum $15, $20 and $25 specials, at anything like the same prices.

The Kirschbaum label is the maker's guaranty to refund the money if the clothes are unsatisfactory.

Leyhe-Downing Clothing Co.

Miss Lucy Moore of Napton was a Marshall visitor Thursday.

V. E. Herring is here from Kansas City spending a week with former friends.

Mrs. Earl Sharp has returned from a delightful visit with her sisters in Los Angeles, California.

Mrs. E. E. Elsea joined her mother Mrs. Steele of Waverly on a trip to Columbia in the latter's auto, today.

M. O. Carroll and family, of Moberly, are expected home for Thanksgiving to visit his mother, Mrs. Almira Carroll.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Scott, W. R. Scott and family spent Sunday in Arrow Rock with Mr. and Mrs. Gibson Scott.

E. G. Guthrey, Lawrence and Sherman Houston, J. D. and Emmett Cole were here from Malta Bend Tuesday on business.

Mrs. L. W. Scott entertained at her home Thursday and Friday afternoons for her guests, Mrs. L. A. Blackburn of Blackburn, and Mrs. George McGrew of St. Louis.

Mrs. Thos. Taylor and children were here from near Blue Lick Saturday. She informed us that they were having a deep well sunk by Hammer & Gower on their farm. Ben Brown of St. Louis is here spending part of his vacation visiting relatives east of town. He looks well fed and prosperous as usual.

STRAYED—A red pig with ring in nose, weighing 35 to 40 pounds, last week, from my place, 335 South Redman. Wesley Scott, or notify this office.

Lorenz Rasse, Jr., Wednesday purchased C. B. Goodwin's auto and Mr. Goodwin is expecting to buy a "Chalmers 25."

The postoffice sale, which was arranged by burglars several weeks ago, is not open yet, in spite of constant work on it since the burglary.

The bill to build a new post office at Marshall, Mo. is now in the hands of the Senate.

Want and for Sale Column

FOR RENT—two or three rooms for housekeeping. Corner Salt Pond and Vest.

FOR SALE—White Langshan cockrels, from prize winning stock $2.50 each. Mrs. W. E. Shackelford. 44-47p

Mr. Ben C. Gray of Liberty, Clay County, Missouri wants to fill for the KKK Medicine Company (he being district agent) quite a number of counties in Missouri. He has a good proposition, one that will interest you, and without a doubt well worth your investigation. For full particulars write him at Liberty, or best go there and see him and obtain the fullest information regarding the proposition. 44-47p

Shoe Repairing promptly done by A. M. Yowell, S. Lafayette. 49lf.

FOR SALE—White Langshan cockrels, from prize winning stock. $2.50 each. Mrs. W. E. Shackelford, Napton, Mo. 44-48p.

FOR SALE—New Gasoline Table Lamp, costing $12.00 for $5.00. This lamp is a powerful one and was purchased for use in our office for emergency purposes, but owing to the strong vibration of running machinery it can not be used. The shaking breaks the mantles. Just the thing for the family circle table. Marshall Republican. 44-48p.

FOR SALE—Scholarship in Business college. Address Marshall Republican. 44-48p.

FOR SALE—40 acres, all in cultivation, three roomed house, small barn, other out buildings, new some netting for a good as new, small orchard, five acres pasture. Main highway on two sides, 1-4 mile to school, 4 miles to railroad town. This is a fine lot for a small family, is all easy working soil, no black or clay ground. 2-4 mile of Missouri river, out of danger of floods, will give possession March 1st, 1914. There are 20 acres to which I will add at a reasonable price to the party who buys the 40 acres. This place will bear inspection and you will be satisfied after looking over the place. I am in good neighborhood. Write me on your all cash or part cash and I will take your money in full of price of a new house. 44-48p.